Thoughts are the only possession that are invulnerable...not to be had by other than the holder, for a million little gremlins within the mind have decided on them...and no two people can have the identical little trolls within—go your merry way world—
take mine with you—for I am I, old father flyface,

I am I.

COLUMBUS

Joaquin Miller

Behind him lay the gray Azores,
Behind the Gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghost of shores;
Before him only shoreless seas.
The good mate said: "Now must we pray,
For lo! the very stars are gone.
Brave Adm'r'l, speak: what shall I say?"
"Why, say: 'Sail on! sail on! and on!'"

"My men grow mutinous day by day;
My men grow ghastly, wan and weak."
The stout mate thought of home; a spray
Of salt wave washed his swarthy cheek.
"What shall I say, brave Adm'r'l, say,
If we sight naught but seas at dawn?"
"Why, you shall at break of day:
'Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!'"

They sailed and sailed, as winds might blow,
Until at last the blanched mate said:
"Why now not even God would know
Should I and all my men fall dead.
These very winds forget their way,
For God from these dead seas is gone.
Now speak, brave Adm'r'l; speak and say—"
He said: "Sail on! sail on! and on!"

They Sailed. They sailed. Then spake the mate:
"This mad sea shows his teeth tonight.
He curls his lip, he lies in wait,
He lifts his teeth, as if to bite!
Brave Adm'r'l, say but one good word:
What shall we do when hope is gone?"
The words leapt like a leaping sword:
"Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!"

Then, pale and worn, he paced his deck,
And peered through darkness. Ah, that night
Of all dark nights! and then a speck—
A light! A light! At last a light!
It grew, a starlit flag unfurled!
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.
He gained a world: he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: "On! sail on!"

Photo Contest

The following pages represent the best work of the members of the photography club. Most of the boys started their photography at the Academy. These pictures form a significant statement of their interest and achievement. The contest was judged by Mrs. Sherman, an Art major at Gorham State College, and wife of Mr. Charles Sherman, Math Dept. Chairman. We are indebted to Mrs. Sherman for her analysis.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial system and for providing a clear audit trail. The second part of the paper focuses on the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the records. The auditor must ensure that all transactions are properly recorded and that the records are consistent with the underlying business transactions. The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This is essential for ensuring the integrity of the financial system and for providing a clear audit trail. The fourth part of the paper focuses on the role of the auditor in verifying the accuracy of the records. The auditor must ensure that all transactions are properly recorded and that the records are consistent with the underlying business transactions.
